Orion Area Parade Group plans Holiday events

Orion, MI. Orion Area Parade Group (OAPG) announces their Orion area holiday parade plans and parade fundraiser the Holly Jolly Folly. Plans are underway for 2006. OAPG board members are meeting on a regular schedule and coordinating with local organizations to bring you the spectacular Orion Area Holiday Lighted Parade again this year.

The Parade fundraiser, the Holly Jolly Folly party, is being planned for Friday December 1, so mark your calendars. Holly Jolly Folly proceeds help pay for Orion Area Holiday Lighted Parade expenses.

‘Parade applications are coming in already’, says OAPG President Chuck Saputo. “We encourage all entries to illuminate their entries with lights and more lights to make this year’s parade even more spectacular”.

The 2006 Parade is set for Saturday evening December 2 starting at 6:00 p.m. in downtown Lake Orion. “Christmas on Broadway” is the 2006 Parade theme. Pre-Parade festivities and musical entertainment start at 4:30p.m. at the Parade Announcer Stage on Broadway near Front Street in downtown Lake Orion.

OAPG is a non-profit, 501 c(3) organization founded in 2003 dedicated to organizing and presenting parade events in the Orion area. OAPG works with local organizations, businesses, groups and individuals to present the premier holiday lighted parade in Oakland County every year in downtown Lake Orion.
